

Nonprofit Bio

Research shows that consistent interaction with at least one, non-familial trusted adult can positively impact a young person's life. With this in mind, Tasha Hayes—a proven thought leader and changemaker in the youth development space—leveraged her background in administration and human capital to found an organization committed to cultivating pro-girl spaces and facilitating life-long mentoring relationships.

Her Inspiration LLC offers programming that fosters high self-esteem, responsible decision making, healthy relationships, social and emotional intelligence, and other factors conducive to the constructive development of young girls and women. Tasha applies over a decade of experience as a dynamic motivational speaker and training as a certified master life coach to promote sisterhood, disrupt generational trauma, and stymie negative self-concept.

As a dedicated educator and 2019 recipient of the Wichita Public Schools Good Apple Award, Tasha is known for exemplary student service and community building. These are practices that, along with her graduate degree in public administration, participation in the 2022 Wichita Urban Professionals Fast Track, and selection as a member of The Thread's Women's Leadership Collective, are critical in her role as CEO of a growing nonprofit. Tasha's greatest strength is being a "Maximizer" who is prepared to strategically partner with like-minded individuals and groups toward the achievement of the Her Inspiration mission.

A clear reflection of her life's work, Tasha's favorite quote is, "My mission in life is not merely to survive, but to thrive; and to do so with some passion, some compassion, some humor and some style" (Maya Angelou). General Bio

For over a decade, Tasha Hayes has led an impressive career as an educator and public servant. As Community Service Representative for the City of Wichita, Tasha's person-centered approach ensures citizens are seen and heard by decision makers. At Storytime Village, a children's literacy organization, Tasha supports efforts to inspire a lifelong love of reading in underserved Kansas youth through her role as Partnership and Volunteer Coordinator. Tasha's passion for positive youth outcomes is also demonstrated in her past work as a middle school teacher at Urban Preparatory Academy and administrative aide for Wichita Public Schools (WPS). In 2019, she was awarded the WPS Good Apple Award for exemplary student support.

To expand reach and impact, Tasha leveraged her background in administration and human capital to establish a nonprofit devoted to the uplift of young girls and women. Her Inspiration LLC aims to inspire girls to make constructive life choices that enable them to realize their full potential. Tasha's greatest strength is being a "Maximizer" who is prepared to strategically partner with like-minded individuals and groups toward the achievement of the organization's mission.

A clear reflection of her life's work, Tasha's favorite quote is, "My mission in life is not merely to survive, but to thrive; and to do so with some passion, some compassion, some humor and some style" (Maya Angelou). In addition to being certified as a Master Life Coach and Financial Coach, Tasha holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice and Criminology from the University of Missouri – Kansas City and a Master of Public Administration degree from Park University. Whenever possible, she enjoys exploring (the world, food, and new adventures) and spending time with friends and family.
